Our School Road Map out of the Lockdown

We feel very strongly at Tacolneston and Morley Primary Schools that while having separate class bubbles of pupils has kept us all safe during the height of the pandemic, numbers of cases have fallen dramatically and being in the open air presents far less of a risk of COVID transmission than being indoors. Keeping children separated during their playtimes has prevented them from benefitting from everything that a small village school has to offer. For example, the Year 6 children and Reception class children haven't been able to form relationships as 'buddies'. Younger children haven't been able to benefit from the social experiences of playing with, talking to and learning the variety of games that older children play and can teach to them. We would like to address this by bringing the children back together for shared outdoor playtimes but want to do this with the agreement of our parents and carers. We would still be ensuring that children are washing their hands before and after playtimes and before using play equipment. We would be grateful if you could respond to our survey.
