Week 20 – 16th February 2024

Our Value for Life this term is Perseverance.

Message from Mr Phoenix

As we come to the end of this first half term of 2024, I want to thank you all for your warm welcome to Tacolneston Primary. It is wonderful to be part of this school and community. This week we have begun thinking about the start of lent, and we celebrated Shrove Tuesday as a whole school in collective worship with some pancake racing!

The children had an enjoyable Valentine's Disco yesterday, and the treat of the theatre show of Wizard of Oz this afternoon. We are really grateful to the Friends of Tacolneston School (FOTS) who arrange these events which make such a difference to children's enjoyment of school. I do hope you are finding the website information useful. I will endeavour to update the latest news pages with some more items as soon as I can.

The website calendar is a google calendar, and as such it should be possible to sync this to your personal calendars. For those who have apple devices, an iCal link is needed for this, but you do need to click on the link fairly regularly to update your calendar with any changes from the school website calendar. For Tacolneston's school calendar, the iCal link is https://calendar.google.com/calendar/ical/c_78c210998992edd1aec39cf0a1ae8511fde054df8e3cb6e2a39396200237c6ad%40group.calendar.google.com/public/basic.ics

Next half term we look forward to welcoming you to our parent teacher consultations during the first week back, and then several important events including World Book day, an Easter Experience day and our whole-school Easter Service which will be at 9am on Wednesday 27th March at Tacolneston Church.

In the meantime, I wish you an enjoyable and restful half term break, and we will see you again on Monday 26th February.

Best wishes,

Mr Phoenix
