Week 22 – 8th March 2024

Our Value for Life this term is Perseverance.

We would like to wish all our mothers, grandmothers and carers a Happy Mother's Day on Sunday.

It was lovely to see all the fabulous costumes on Thursday for World Book Day. We would like to thank you for the support in celebrating this day. This week we have been looking at the books by James Mayhew, author of Katie and the Sunflowers, which is dedicated to Tacolneston School and have added more of his art work around the school.

Next week we have the Easter Experience, which all the children will be taking part in, in School please look out for reports in the Flyer next Friday.

Easter Egg Hunt 27th March 2024

For our new parents, this involves all the children running around the school field hunting for chocolate eggs and returning them to the staff (not their pockets!!) in order to be counted and handed out at the end of the school day.

We would therefore be grateful for donations of small chocolate eggs for the hunt. In the past we have received the smallish hollow eggs, these are not ideal as they get broken when being collected and we would need quite a few in order for all the children to receive one. Also, with the eggs being on the field, they must be foil wrapped.

Therefore, could we please ask for the nets / bags of the small, solid, foil wrapped eggs. In addition, we are a nut free school and cannot use eggs with nuts (praline) or alcohol in them - they will make their way to the staffroom!

There is a box in the reception area by the office for the eggs.

Thank you
